APPEAL OF FILIPINOS.

They Ask Uncle Sam to Give Them Liberty and Independence.

PETITION PRESENTED TO SENATE.

Names of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln and God Eternal Invoked In Behalf of Their Cause—Proceedings in the House.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Senator Teller presented a memorial from 2,000 Filipinos and peaceful inhabitants of Manila. The memorial was in the form of an appeal to the congress of the United States, and as Mr. Teller stated was "signed personally by the leading people of Manila and that section—lawyers, bankers and professional men—representing the best elements of that community." It reviewed the circumstances leading up to the present struggle of the Filipinos for independence. It paid a high tribute to the work of Aguinaldo and his coadjutors in their endeavor to obtain liberty and independence for the people of the Philippines.

Reference was made to some of the principal events of the war against American authority, urging that the American troops had failed to make a serious impression upon the Filipinos. It pointed out that Aguinaldo declared he might lose the hope of victory, but he would not lose the hope of dying for the liberty and independence of his people. It points out that the war has the support of practically all the people of the Philippines and declares that though 100 Filipinos be destroyed, 1,000 will rise up to support the fight for independence. All of the islands of the archipelago, says the memorial, are supporting the war, and they will not yield until the last drop of Filipino blood has been shed. The Filipino nation, the memorial continues, bearing in mind the history of America and its humanitarian doctrines asks the government of the United States to "ease its persecution of men struggling to be free; struggling against greater odds and greater wrongs than those which inspired the fathers of the republic. This we ask in the name of Washington, of Jefferson, of Lincoln, in the name of justice and in the name of God eternal." The appeal declares that autonomy similar to that enjoyed by Canada or Australia would not be acceptable to the Filipinos, who desire full liberty and independence, and they urge the government of the United States to give them liberty and independence.

When the reading of the memorial had been concluded, Mr. Teller asked that it be printed as a document.

"I object," said Mr. Hawley (Conn.). "It is a treasonable denunciation of our government and an attack upon our soldiers."

On the desk of Mr. Gallinger (N. H.) was placed a bunch of roses, sent by friends as a testimonial of his efforts to secure the abolition of the canteen in the army.

Mr. Vest and Mr. Rawlins announced that they had been detained unavoidably from the senate Wednesday, when the vote upon the canteen question was taken. They would have voted, had they been present, to sustain the action of the senate committee; that is, against abolishing the canteen.

The senate resumed consideration of the army reorganization bill. An amendment was adopted providing that persons not over 40 years old, who served as volunteers subsequent to April 21, 1898, may be appointed first and second lieutenants in the army.

In the House.

The desk of Representative Clark (N. H.), who died Wednesday night at his home, was shrouded in black and covered with flowers when the house met.

By unanimous consent the bill to revise and codify the postal laws of the United States was made a special order after the disposal of the river and harbor bill.

The following days were set aside for paying tribute: Feb. 2, at 3 o'clock, to the late Senator Davis of Minnesota; Feb. 9, at 4, to the late Representative Wise of Virginia; Jan. 26, at 4, to the late Senator Gear of Iowa; Feb. 16, at 4, to the late Representative Hoefferer of Delaware.

The house then went into committee of whole and resumed consideration of the river and harbor bill. Mr. Shadeford (Mo.) protested against the action of the committee in abolishing the Missouri river commission. Mr. Grosvenor (O.) replied briefly to the remarks of some of the western members in favor of appropriations in the river and harbor bill for the reclamation of arid lands. He appreciated the glamour of the prospect of watering the arid regions of the country, but he denied the power of congress to enter upon a vast scheme of irrigation and he questioned its propriety.

Mr. Jones (Wash.) made an earnest plea for an appropriation for improving the inner harbor at Grays Harbor, Wash. Mr. Hepburn (Ia.) took the floor for an hour's speech, in which he vigorously assailed various features of the bill. He was in favor of promoting interstate commerce by every sort of legitimate improvement. What he complained of were the enormous sums appropriated for "purely local" and state improvements. Mr. Hepburn and W. A. Smith (Mich.) had a sharp exchange, in which personalities were bandied back and forth. Many of Mr. Hepburn's criticisms were aimed at the large amount the state of Michigan will receive, and this aroused the resentment of Michigan members.

CURRENCY LEGISLATION.

Suggestions Made For Strengthening The Gold Standard.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Secretary Gage, Horace White of New York and several other financiers appeared before the house committee on coinage, weights and measures at the request of the committee, and gave their views on the Overstreet, Levy and Hill bills to maintain the parity of the money of the United States. The three bills, although containing different provisions, each provide for the exchange at the option of the holder of the gold and silver coins of the United States. To accomplish this the Overstreet bill authorized the secretary of the treasury to use the gold reserve fund in the treasury, and the Levy bill authorized him to issue 2 per cent bonds before the hearing Chairman Southard read a letter from John H. Rhoades, the chairman of the finance committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce, heartily indorsing the bill and urging its enactment at this session. Mr. Levy (N. Y.), who was present to advocate his bill, created something of a sensation by stating that Mr. Bryan, the recent Democratic candidate for president, had told him that, if elected president, he would find a way to pay obligations in silver.

Horace White said he assumed that no argument was necessary in support of the gold standard. He favored the Hill bill. Mr. Shafroth of Colorado asked whether to make silver and greenbacks exchangeable in gold did not in fact make them simply promises to pay in gold. "Certainly," replied Mr. White. "Then you desire to impound $500,000,000 in silver and eventually dump the silver on the country as bullion?" "Not at once, but gradually," replied Mr. White. "We should do just what Germany has done. I think we would be lucky if we could get back half of what we paid for the silver." Questioned further, Mr. White said a failure of crops, anything which would greatly lessen the demand for money, would send silver and silver certificates under the present law into the treasury and eventually cause a disparity between the price of gold and silver, because of the government's liability to pay gold. Mr. Hill (Conn.) said that in his opinion the two dangers which threaten the gold standard are the greenbacks and silver. Of these two he considered the former the greater, but the country seems to think otherwise. He asked if Mr. White did not agree that much of the silver could be recoined into subsidiary coin and the remainder made exchangeable. Mr. White agreed to this proposition.

Secretary Gage said the question involved in the bills before the committee was simple. He agreed with Mr. White that in times of dullness or business depression the bankers and other holders of money in the centers of population would gradually withhold gold and allow silver and silver certificates to pile up in the treasury through the payment of custom dues and taxes. If congress failed to make gold and silver exchangeable it implied a doubt as to whether they were at a parity. As long as this doubt existed, no matter how slight it might be, the bankers and holders of money refused to take the risk. "Why should they take the risk," he asked, "if you refuse to remove it? Why charge them with responsibilities you will not take?" he asked, striking the table emphatically. Secretary Gage said his experience had taught him if a man showed the slightest inclination to evade responsibility for enterprises he had undertaken he was hurt in his community. It was the law of life, said he, and it was a pretty good law. He saw no risk in the government removing any doubt as to its policy.

Mr. Cockran (Mo.) asked Mr. Gage if silver was to be made redeemable in gold, why it would not be better, from the standpoint of economy, to sell the silver and place it in the gold fund for redemption purposes. "If it could be done without seriously disturbing the money markets," replied Secretary Gage, "I think that course would be more honest."

TROOPS DRILL DAILY

Nell Armed Chinese Soldiers Getting In Train For Fighting.

ANTI-FOREIGN FEELING IS INTENSE.

Believe They Can Meet the Allies In Open Battle and Whip Them. Powers Will Not Accept the Offer of United States.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The state department has received an important communication from the German government relating to the Chinese question. The nature of the communication has not been disclosed.

Peking, Jan. 10.—A Chinaman from Sian Fu, where the court is located, says that within the city 85,000 Chinese troops are drilling continuously, and the majority of them are armed with modern rifles. He says the feeling of the people there is bitterly anti-foreign, and that they believe they can meet the forces of the allies in open fight and defeat them.

The ministers are considerably astonished over the Chinese grant to Russia of a concession north of the Pei-Ho at Tien-Tsin, as compared with the British and French concessions combined. The grant, according to the Russians, was made voluntarily for services in endeavoring to bring about peace. The ministers think that the concession constitutes good pay when considered in addition to the annexation of all Manchuria.

Li Hung Chang believes he will soon receive a favorable reply regarding the signing of the agreement. Senor Sorenson, the Spanish minister, thinks negotiations will commence at Peking, possibly ending in Europe. M. De Giers thinks negotiations will end at The Hague.

Uncle Sam's Offer Declined.

Paris, Jan. 10.—It is stated on good authority that the suggestion of the government of the United States to change the seat of the Chinese peace negotiations from Peking to Washington will be declined by the powers.

Then Aguinaldo Isn't Dead.

London, Jan. 10.—A serious disagreement has arisen between the Filipino representatives in Europe. Aguinaldo, whom Aguinaldo ordered to Hongkong to direct operations of the junta there, has revolted and refused to go to Hongkong, or give up his post in Paris to Dr. Apacible. The latter Aguinaldo ordered to go to Canada from Hongkong, to watch the United States elections. He was then ordered to replace Aguinaldo. The disputants have both cabled Aguinaldo and are waiting for his reply.

Nobbed at Postoffice Window.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—Alfred J. Fritch, a young business man of Middletown, O., was arrested at the general delivery window of the postoffice on a warrant charging him with forgery. W. I. Zeller of Germantown, O., who instituted the arrest, charges in the information accompanying the requisition and warrant that Fritch passed three forged notes bearing his name. Fritch, who asserts his innocence, says he will accompany Chief of Police Stuhls of Middletown, back home without a requisition.

Lifeline to the Russie.

Marseilles, Jan. 10.—A message from Farman states that in spite of heavy seas a lifeboat succeeded in reaching the French steamer Russie, and attached the line to her by which food can be furnished passengers and crew, who had all been cooped up in the forecastle since Monday evening, when the vessel stranded, and were famishing. At 6:30 p.m. the lifeline connected with the Russie still held good in spite of tremendous seas, but it had not yet been possible to take off the passengers.

ANDRE'S WILL.

Realized When He Wrote It That It Was His Last Testament.

New York, Jan. 10.—A dispatch from Vienna says Professor Andre's will, which he gave instructions should be opened at the end of 1900 in case he had not returned from his balloon trip to the north pole, has been read. It is accompanied by a series of letters from prominent scientists encouraging him in the dangerous enterprise, and one from M. De Fouvielle, warning him against it. In this latter Andre had written in pencil: "It is possible that he may be right, but now it is too late. I have made all my preparations and can not now draw back." The will itself is very short, and the introduction seems to show that Andre divined the fate that awaited him. The text begins: "I write today probably my last testament, and therefore it is legally valid. I write on the eve of a journey full of dangers such as history has yet never been able to show. My presentiment tells me that this terrible journey will signify my death." The remainder of the will divides Andre's property between his brother and sister.

Not Declared Off.

Cincinnati, Jan. 10.—Reports having been sent out that the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight, scheduled here for Feb. 15, had been declared off by the directors of the Saengerfest Athletic association join President Hobart in individual statements that these reports are false, and that the principal matter considered by them was the sueing of papers publishing these false reports. One of the local morning papers published the report, and it was afterward telegraphed elsewhere, but it is denied by all officially connected with the event.

Statement by Hobart.

Cincinnati, Jan. 10.—President Hobart of the Saengerfest club, when asked concerning a published statement that the Jeffries-Ruhlin contest was declared off, denied that any such action had been taken by the board; that the report was premature and unauthorized. He admitted that Brady had been notified that some legal complications have arisen. These, Mr. Hobart said, the board would consider.

Instructed to Advance.

Cincinnati, Jan. 10.—In charging the grand jury Judge Davis gave instructions to indict all persons who may take part in any prize fight in Hamilton county, whether as principals or seconds, or who may in any way promote, aid orabet the fight. No action of the grand jury can take place under this charge, however, unless a prize fight takes place.

Boers Play a Dirty Mean Trick on Several British Camps.

SIMULTANEOUS DETERMINED ATTACK

Didn't Send the British Word They Were Coming But Walked Right In on Them and Began to Shoot. Were Finally Driven Off.

London, Jan. 10.—General Kitchener sends news of a serious, simultaneous attack the night of Jan. 7 by the Boers on the British position between points 60 miles apart along the lines of the Pretoria and Lorenzo Marques railway. The losses on both sides were heavy. Following is the text of General Kitchener's report: "Pretoria, Jan. 9.—The night of Jan. 7 the Boers made simultaneous and determined attacks upon all of our posts at Belfast, Wonderfontein, Nootgedacht and Wildfontein. Intense fog prevailed and, taking advantage of the cover it afforded, the Boers were able to creep up close to our position. A heavy fire continued until 3:40 a.m., when the Boers were driven off. One officer was killed and three were wounded, while 20 men were killed and 59 wounded. The loss of the Boers was heavy, 21 dead being counted. A convoy taking supplies to Gordon's brigade, north of Krugersdorp, was attacked by Beyer's commando Tuesday. The Boers were driven off, leaving 11 dead on the field. Our casualties were four wounded."

NO SMALLPOX IN MAYSVILLE.

Notwithstanding the many wild reports one hears in the country to the contrary, THERE IS NOT NOW A SINGLE CASE OF SMALLPOX IN THE CITY OF MAYSVILLE.

The BULLETIN makes this plain and emphatic statement in order to set at rest these sensational reports.

There are some cases of the disease, it is true, in the county pest house, which is located in the county, south of the city, but most of these patients came from the vicinity of Lewisburg.

In this city every house where a case of the disease, or any suspected case, existed, has been thoroughly fumigated and disinfected and Maysville is wholly free of the disease.

Mayor Stalcup and the health authorities are certainly entitled to the highest commendation for the prompt and thorough manner in which they have rid the city of this disease.

SORE AT EVANS.

Republican National Committee Calls Halt on the Kentucky Judge in His Fight Against Judicial Bill.

[Washington City Special.]
Judge Walter Evans, of Kentucky, has met with a serious hold-up at the hands of the Republican National Committee. It was the intention of the Judge to come on to Washington to show the Senate Committee on Judiciary that there was no occasion for the creation of an additional Judicial district in his State, and he had about completed his arrangements for the trip.

Leastwise that is the way the story goes. Then certain members of the National Committee put their heads together and told the Judge that it would not be good etiquette for him to indulge in any lobbying, no matter of how harmless a nature, and included a request, which amounted to a demand, that he remain away from this city.

Senator Deboe is said to have taken a strong hand in the proceedings, inasmuch as he is desirous of a little more patronage for distribution.

The announcement that Captain John T. Martin and wife will leave Maysville at an early date to make their home elsewhere will be received with surprise and sincere regret by their many friends and the community in general. While their future plans have not yet been definitely settled, they will probably locate in Southern California, as it is their intention to seek a more genial climate. Captain Martin will to-morrow advertise the entire stock of clothing, good will and fixtures of the Red Corner Clothing House; also a brick dwelling on East Fourth street near Limestone, and his farm of 134 acres on the Hill City pike. Further particulars will be found in his advertisement to-morrow.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters cured me, and, although seventy-three years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite and gives perfect health. Only 50c, at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

IN TROUBLE.

A Church Trial in Nicholas County Growing Out of a Recent Marriage.

Mt. Olivet, Ky., Jan. 10.—Nicholas County is stirred up over an "ecclesiastical" trial, which will be held Friday.

Wilford Fryman is one of the wealthy and prominent men of Northern Nicholas County. For more than thirty years he has been a mainstay of the Barefoot Metho list Church.

The charge against Mr. Fryman is "adulterous marriage relation," and is founded on that section of the Methodist Discipline which says: "No divorce except for adultery shall be regarded by the church as lawful."

Fryman courted, won and wedded Mrs. Nancy Ann Claypoole, a charming widow, who had secured a divorce from her former husband on the ground of abandonment. The wherea' ons of Mrs. Fryman's first love are not known, and the defense is relying upon the fact that he "may be dead."

The charge is brought by W. R. Florence. The charge will be tried before a jury of eleven members of the denomination, and the pastor, Rev. F. L. Creech, will preside. Mr. Florence will conduct the prosecution. Mr. Fryman had secured the lawyers, Hanson Kennedy and John I. Williamson, to defend him, but as they were not members of the denomination they were not permitted to appear in the case, and Mr. Fryman has secured Robert Buckler, of this place.

The steamer City of Louisville has completed the most remarkable record made by any steamboat. She made her 2,000th trip in the Cincinnati and Louisville trade, covering a distance of over 300,000 miles, which is equivalent to twelve times around the globe. The most remarkable thing about the record is that the steamer did not have a mishap.

Meers, Dameron and Fern, steamboat inspectors, announced their decision in the Virginia-Bonanza collision case which occurred on the morning of December 5, 1900. Pilot J. H. Ollum of the Virginia was suspended from January 14 to February 12 for disregarding a rule governing navigation in such cases. Pilot Elias Argo of the Bonanza was exonerated from all blame.

When the appropriation bill for the Ohio river was drawn down No. 6 was not mentioned. All the money heretofore provided for the improvement is pledged for work under contract. The amount needed for the completion of this dam is $150,000, and if that sum was made available the work could be completed by next summer. Captain John F. Dravo, of the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange discovered the error. The work for which $150,000 is needed consists in providing lock-gates, power house machinery, boats, employees' house, store house, etc.

Captain Val P. Collins will soon have a trim and staunch boat coming down the Ohio river named after himself. While he is the owner of the boat he is not responsible for the naming of her. It happened in this way: Captain Collins had made all arrangements for having the boat launched and was going to be present and witness it. The high water of some time ago came along, however, and necessitated launching the boat without further waiting. This was done, and the men christened her as she went in as the Val P. Collins.

ARBITRARY

Are the Efforts of the Administration To Substitute Its Will For Constitutional Authority.

[Chicago Times-Herald, Rep.]
Solicitor General Richards has distinguished himself by involving his client, the Government, in a maze of absurd contradictions. His argument in the Porto Rico cases asserts that the Constitution follows the flag, also that the Constitution does not follow the flag. The first assertion gives away the Government's case completely, the second is bolstered up by a reasoning on a series of exceptions which comes to this, that the Government will go as far as it dare in ruling arbitrarily, applying the Constitution when it must and withholding it when it can.

Mr. Richards was exceedingly unfortunate when he attempted to be satirical at the expense of General Harrison.

The upshot of the matter is that in spite of Mr. Richards' denials the Government is trying to substitute its own will for constitutional authority. It is doing this with the bill of rights as it is with the tariff laws, which the Constitution says shall be uniform, but there can be no discrimination between the two cases. It would be quite enough if the tariff laws alone were involved, since if there can be any exception the whole principle fails.

PATIENT OUT HUNTING.

Surprise Furnished to Greenup County Board of Health.

GREENUP, Ky., Jan. 9.—The County Board of Health had occasion a few days ago to go to the country to investigate a case of reported smallpox. When they got there they found the victim had gone rabbit hunting. After quite a search they found him trying to twist a rabbit out of a hollow tree.

When informed he would have to go to the house to be treated for smallpox he said: "Be gad, suh, I can't go till I get this here blamed rabbit."

This shows how severe the disease, whatever it may be, is.

She leaves two children,—Mr. W. J. Neal, of the West End, and Mrs. Mary Hubbard, of this city,—and ten grandchildren. Her husband, the late Thomas Neal, died about two years ago.

Their doctor did them no good. A FLEMING CITIZEN MISSING.

Thomas B. Overley of Crains Disappeared Last Monday and Has Not Been Heard From.

[Times Democrat]

Thos. B. Overley, of Crains, who has been running a blacksmith shop at that place for some time past, disappeared very mysteriously Monday night and up to this writing Wednesday afternoon nothing has been seen or heard of him.

He was in this city Monday afternoon and the writer talked with him but saw no indications of anything wrong with him mentally. He had recently lost one of his children, the youngest, and had others sick with measles, and it may be that worry over the matter may have temporarily unbalanced his mind. We hope he may yet show up safe and sound. Later we learn that he bought some horse shoe nails at the Racket store Monday afternoon, showing that he did not contemplate leaving.

Mr. Elmer Lunsford and Miss Etta Thackston, daughter of William Thackston, living on Lee's Creek, eloped to Georgetown, Ohio, and were married. Miss Thackston left her home to go driving with Lunsford Gribble and was quickly driven to South Ripley where the prospective groom was in waiting.

During the union week of prayer services last evening the floor of the First Presbyterian Church caught fire from an overheated register. The fire was fortunately discovered in its incipiency and was extinguished with a cup or two of water. But few in the congregation knew of the trouble until after the service closed.

Elder and Mrs. Geo. P. Tambman, of Portsmouth, celebrated their wooden wedding this week. Nearly every one of the 1,000 members of the church of which he is pastor called during the evening.
